Republic of Moldova

Universitatea de Stat "Alec Russo" din Bălți
MD 3100, str. Puskin 38, Bălți, Republica Moldova

MOLDOVA, the Republic of,

- Situated in Eastern Europe
- Bordered by Romania and Ukraine
- Capital: Chisinau

The higher education system in the Republic of Moldova has undergone considerable changes in the last years, after joining thr BOLOGNA Process:

- reorganization from 1 September 2005 of the higher education into a 3-cycle system- a LMD;
- elaboration and implementation of the Curriculum Frameworks for the first and second cycles;
- the National Qualification Framework (for the First Cycle) was outlined;
- an ECTS implementation guide has been drawn up;
- diploma supplements (Bachelor and Master programmes) have been drawn up and implemented;
- quality assurance bodies have been established in the framework of each higher education institution;
- a system of internal quality assessment has been developed and implemented.

BĂLȚI ['bəlts]

It is the second largest in terms of area and economic importance after Chisinau, and the third largest in terms of population after Chisinau and Tiraspol. The city is one of the five Moldovan municipalities. Sometimes also called "the northern capital", it is a major industrial, cultural and commercial centre and transportation hub in the north of the country. It is situated 127 kilometres (79 mi) north of the capital Chișinău, and is located on the river Răut, a tributary of the Dniester, on a hilly landscape in the Bălți steppe.
